MEDICAL QUALITY AT ASKLEPIOS

Innovative and successful

Health is not just a mere question of each specialist discipline, and that's why all interdisciplinary departments work together at Asklepios – with the medical experience and competence of our hospital and the entire Asklepios-Group. Asklepios comprises over 160 establishments, around 26,500 beds and 43,000 employees. This makes the German family business the largest private hospital chain in Europe. Renowned specialists from all over Germany work closely with our departments – for the benefit of the patients.
